Mr. Cowden the popular contractor who has bought so many walnut logs in Caddo County was the unfortunate victim of a severe knife cut Saturday night. He was sitting in front of the American Hotel when three Indian bucks came up behind him and pulled his chair over. When he got on his feet he did what any self respecting American would. He promptly knocked the offender down. He did more, he gave them all three a sound trouncing. During the Melee one of them cut him on the forehead with his knife. The wound required three stitches, but is not serious.

Contest Notice.

Department of the Interior, United States Land Office.

El Reno, Oklahoma, June 9th, 1902.

A sufficient contest affidavit having been filed in this office by John Mulligan of Anadarko, O. T., contestant, against the homestead entry of Charles J. Wisner, No. 8328, made on the 18th day of March, 1902, for the ne 1/4 Sec. 1, T. 9 N., R. 9 W., E. 1 M., being the transmitted Soldiers' Deedatory Statement No. 180, in which it is alleged that said Charles J. Wisner did not make said homestead entry for the use and benefit of himself and did not file said S. D. S. No. 180 for said tract of land for the purpose of securing for himself and family a home, but that he made such declaration of statement for the purpose of speculation only.

Also that at no time since the filing of said S. D. S. on the 18th day of September, 1901, made actual settlement on said tract, and that said Charles J. Wisner has at no time resided upon or cultivated the same, but has wholly abandoned said tract for more than six months immediately prior to the date hereof; that said Wisner's absence from said tract of land is not due to his employment in the army or navy of the United States.

Also that said John Mulligan is an actual resident in good faith of said tract, and that he is improving the same for the purpose of making it his home for himself and family. The said parties are hereby notified to appear and respond and offer evidence touching said allegations at ten o'clock a. m. on the 6th day of September, 1902, before the Register and Receiver at the United States Land Office at El Reno, O.
